Then2Now ‘to bring the funk’ live in Deltona Amphitheater

Sept. 29, 2014— The City of Deltona is proud to present Then2Now in concert, 7-9 p.m., Oct. 11, in the Deltona Amphitheater, 2150 Eustace Ave, part of the Music In the Amphitheater Series. R&B funk band, Then2Neow includes five fine musicians and singers that promise to “entertain to the fullest.”

Then2Now was founded by Larry Hicks Sr. of Deltona, in 1996. Members include Hicks (vocals, Latin percussion and alto saxophone); Dino Balfour who plays keyboards, bass and also sings; drummer Ronald Sutton who also sings; Buddy Kays, who plays saxophone, percussion and sings, and Reginald Calhoun who plays guitar, bass and sings. Then2Now performs throughout Central Florida and can be seen regularly at Inlet Harbor Restaurant and Down the Hatch in Ponce Inlet. You will not want to miss the party these gentlemen bring.

Admission is free. Some of the area’s finest food trucks will be in the parking lot of the Deltona Regional Library complex, so there will be plenty of food to choose from.

The 2014 Music in the Amphitheater Series takes place the second Saturday of each month from April to October in the Deltona Amphitheater. Then2Now is the final concert of this year’s series. Check the City Web site or follow us on Facebook and Twitter for the announcement of the 2015 concert lineup next Spring. For information on this and other events happening in the Deltona Amphitheater, call the Deltona Parks & Recreation, (386) 878-8900.
